MAYOR SAYS NIX ON THE FILM
"BIRTH OF A NATION"

"The Birth of a Nation," the monster film depicting the horrors of slavery, the civil war, the assassination of President Lincoln and period of reconstruction following the strife, will not be shown in Chicago while Mayor Thompson is in office. This announcement came from the city hall.

Pressure from the Second and Third ward negro voters' leagues is supposed to have made up the mayor's mind that an exhibition of the picture dealing with the race problem would not be a good thing for Chicago.

The film which seeks to justify the "Klu Klux Klan," the reign of terror which followed the civil war in the south and brings home the failure of the dead president's plan of returning the southern negroes to Africa has caused riots in other cities when shown.

One sensational feature is a proposal of marriage from a negro lieutenant governor to a white man's daughter. The film has been fought for months by the "black belt."

She—Oh, isn't this place delightful. Romance is in the very air here.

He—Yes, I noticed the ads. use most of the romance.
